

SMS / TEXTING PRIVACY NOTICE

By having a policy with Aspire General Insurance Company, you gave us your consent in your Application for Insurance to contact you regarding your policy, claims, and marketing. There is no separate charge for this service; however, your carrier's message and data rates may apply.

Aspire General Insurance Company may also receive information concerning third-parties involved in a claim situation.

If we use automated SMS/Texting services to contact you, it will only be done with your consent.

Any parties receiving SMS/Texting services from or on behalf of Aspire General Insurance Company may opt out at any time by replying STOP to any such message received.
